STATEMENT OF CONCERN

Amigos is in a unique position within the world of libraries and communities, where they serve small rural libraries and larger more urban libraries with ease throughout a cross section of culturally diverse areas. A diverse board, filled with members from all walks of library world, is crucial to the future success. Amigos has become what it is today because of their diversified abilities to work with libraries across a wide variety of means, ability levels, and economic scales.

One of the biggest assets to Amigos in my opinion is the amount of continuing education they are able to provide to their member libraries. By providing affordable courses, libraries of all sizes and shapes are essentially on common ground and can attain similar educational experiences that are needed in all library atmospheres. A commitment to this educational component is crucial to small and bigger libraries alike to continue to employ innovative, educated, and sought after employees.

As a candidate for the Amigos board, I plan to advocate for smaller and rural libraries. Needs of all libraries will be considered and assessed in decision making. I will work hard for the collective and hopefully increase the power of Amigos by my presence.
